

New gallery

ERWIN DE MUER

A top Luxembourg gallery has just opened a Brussels outpost in a wide, white space. The show Strange, Familiar and Unforgotten, just past the red neon by Peter Friedl that spells out badly organized, is anything but. It features Robert Barry, Sophie Calle, Johan Grimmonprez and his pictures of plane hijackers, as well as less familiar names: Jana Starbak and a video of people reciting the list of human rights, Pierre Bismuth and a mural drawing inspired by a dancer's movements.

Galerie Erna Hecey, 1c Rue des Fabriques, Brussels, until July 15, tel 02.502.00.24.
